

FAQ

How will my video(s) be exhibited?

The videos at FOKUS 2018 Open Call will be exhibited digitally and will be screened at selected venues including an award ceremony during the festival. Only the selected videos will be shown during FOKUS 2018 video art festival.

Who will be judging my video(s)?

The video(s) will be judged by a jury, which is established by FOKUS. Who the jury members are will be announced before the opening of the festival.

How will the selection process proceed?

The jury will select a shortlist of 10 videos in January. From the shortlist there will be selected one winner of FOKUS 2018 Open Call and two winners of the Runners-up Prizes.

How will I know if my video(s) are selected?

You will be contacted by email in January if your video(s) are selected for this year's shortlist. The final winner and the two winners of the Runners-up Prizes will be announced at an award ceremony during the festival.

Will I receive a confirmation when you have received my video(s)?

Yes. Participants who upload their video(s) online will receive an automatic reply when the upload is successful. Participants, who send their video(s) by snail mail, will receive an email when we have received the video(s).

If I am sending in my video(s) by snail mail do I still have to fill out the entry form online?

Yes. All participants are obligated to fill out an online entry form.

Can I have my video(s) back after the competition?

Yes. If you leave us a self addressed stamped envelope we will return your video(s) after the festival.
